

Chemistry is All Around Network Workshop on "Teacher Training" Limerick, Ireland, 28 May 2013

Agenda

Timetable of the workshop: 15.30 – 20.45 hours

15.30 Welcome and introductions.

15.45 Project Update presentation.

16.15 Break – discussion time.

17.00 Presentation of teachers' and experts' comments about the Papers on Teacher Training uploaded by Partners on the Project Portal.

17.45 Presentation of teachers' and experts' comments about the Publications on Teacher Training uploaded by Partners on the Project Portal

18.15 DISCUSSION SESSION – please consider the following topics for discussion: If you have sample materials that you could bring or demonstrate that would be helpful.

- Methodologies to teach a specific topic (e.g. acids and bases, the period table) analysis and comparison between positive and negative experiences. Including primary school issues.
- Consequences of lack of opportunities to experiment different approaches and methods for teaching and learning Chemistry
- Importance of training science teacher to keep updated with the continuous progress of research.
- Use of simulations: pros and cons.

19.30 Identification of recommendations, guidelines for teachers.

20.00 Completion of evaluation questionnaires

20.30 Future work

