

Successful Educational Experiences and Didactic Guidelines in Science Teaching

The International Conference “Successful Educational Experiences and Didactic Guidelines in Science Teaching” will be held at the Department of Chemistry and Industrial Chemistry of Genoa (Italy) on October 23rd and 24th 2014.

This event is an essential part of the activities related to 518300-LLP-2011-IT-COMENIUS-CNW “Chemistry is All Around Network [1]” project funded by the European Commission.

The aim of the conference is to present the work done by experts, teachers and students of primary, middle and high school in eleven different countries: Belgium, Bulgaria, Czech Republic, Greece, Ireland, Italy, Poland, Portugal, Slovak Republic, Spain and Turkey.

The conference is not only addressed to scientific experts in chemistry and school teachers, but it is open to all people interested in scientific training.

The submission of abstracts is possible until September 19, 2014. Acceptance of contributions will be notified by September 26.

Participation is free of charge, but registration is required.
